Annual General Meeting

The annual general meeting of the RLTA was held at the clubhouse on Saturday 28th January 2006. The club president's report on club activities in 2005 included the following:

- Appointment of Jani Kroyherr as the new coach and Betty McCoy as the club administrator.
- A 100% increase in the numbers in the junior development program
- Opening of the new clubhouse in May with support from local, state and federal politicians
- Upgrade to enviro-lights on courts 1 to 4.
- Wonderful support from members in painting and adding dampening carpet to various court back-walls
- Honour boards have been renovated and installed in the new clubhouse
- A fantastic job by Keith Collier and Pat Cleary in maintaining the court surfaces and gardens
- RLTA Vets have raised sufficient funds (raffles) to purchase a BBQ and external tables for the new clubhouse
- A major revision of the club's web site (www.rlta.org.au)
- Our first ever win of the inter-district Tom Ferguson Shield
- The re-introduction of mid-week junior fixtures
- Various sponsorship for memorial benches for clubhouse verandahs
- Council support for a new drain at the western end of the tennis complex
