

The fitting of lights at R.I.T.A. courts at the Cleveland Showgrounds is awaited with much interest by many tennis fans. Here the electrician attends to a mass of wiring of the first light to be installed; watched by tennis player, Robert Kees. Night tennis — just the thing for winter.